COLLIDE: “Love What Matters” – 1 John 2:15-17

The world is full of things we can love at the expense of our relationship with Jesus. Success, money, status, or accomplishments can become the things we value above all else. We need to make the conscious decision to “love what matters” most in our lives by giving all of our time, energy, and affection to Jesus.

Love for the world _____ out love for God.

_____ your love, either the world or the Father, but not both.

_____ your love, either the world or the Father, but not both.

_____ your love, either the world or the Father, but not both.
