Resurrection Truth: “No Longer Condemned” -Romans 8:1-11

Our text this morning begins by talking about “no condemnation”. When we say there is no condemnation, we mean that a person has been found innocent and absolved of all guilt and is free from receiving any punishment. This is a wonderful truth of Scripture, and one of the many benefits of the resurrection but sometimes as believers we have a hard time accepting it. This causes us to be trapped rather than living in freedom in Christ. Paul tells us why we don’t have to live that way.

Our _____ in Christ deals with the _____ of sin.

Our _____ with the Spirit _____ with the power of sin.

We have received _____.

We have received _____.

We have received _____.

No condemnation _____ us to _____ holy lives.

We pursue holy living by _____ about our thoughts.

We pursue holy living by _____ we are in a fierce battle.

We pursue holy living by _____ each thought and analysing it.

We pursue holy living by _____ to the Spirit’s control.
