“Resurrection Choices” - Luke 24:1-12

Sometimes pain and despair in our life alters our vision. From time to time, it’s hard to see Jesus, even when He’s right beside us because we’re focusing elsewhere. Easter is about hope. When your hope is gone, when you are totally confused, when you are desperate and searching, there is real hope in Jesus. The resurrection leaves us with choices, what will yours be this Easter season. The empty tomb is an invitation to live from God who created us and has a purpose for us and loves us. Christ is risen, it is finished!

Choose to _____ for hope in the _____ place.

Choose to _____ what Jesus _____.

Choosing resurrection hope is the _____ of our _____.

The Easter message is this...Come into the presence of God, see what God has done, and then go into the world and tell others.
