Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On behalf of myself and my family, I wish to thank you all for your kindness, cards, food and especially for your love during the passing away of our dear Bruce. Your prayers were much appreciated and helped to relieve the pain of losing a husband, a Dad and a grandfather. We certainly felt God's presence in the darkest moments of this experience. As Christians our hope is not in this world but in the hope of eternal life. Bruce left us a great legacy by his example to share this hope with people around us.

As the body of Christ you have truly demonstrated Jesus' love and care and this was noticed by family and friends. A special thanks to Pastor Gary Barr (Debbie) who defeated jetlag in order to officiate in the funeral service.

Forever thankful,

Marie-Claire Muirhead and family

LIVE READY “Ready Your Prayers” – Colossians 4:2-4

This is the final week in our “Living Ready” series. This morning we’re going to talk about the importance of a consistent prayer life and how we can better equip ourselves to pray more effectively. Prayer is not the least we can do; prayer is the best we can do. May we be quick to respond to the brokenness of our world with targeted prayer and powerful faith. With thankfulness in our hearts that God hears the prayers of His people, we must be quick to bring our concerns to Him.

Being ready in prayer means we _____ what prayer is.

Being ready in prayer means we are _____ to prayer.

Being ready in prayer means we are _____ in prayer.

Being ready in prayer means we are _____ in prayer.

Prayer is not the least we can do; prayer is the best we can do!
