TAKE MY YOKE: “Learning From Jesus”–Matthew 11:28-30

As disciples, Jesus calls us to follow and learn from Him. Unlike other teachers of His day, His yoke is easy, and His burden is light. He is patient and kind, gentle and lowly in spirit. His ways are not a lengthy and heavy list of rules and regulations to carry, but rather a life to live in humble submission to the Good Shepherd.

Disciples learn to answer the _____ of Jesus.

Disciples learn to follow the _____ of Jesus.

Disciples learn to live by the _____ of Jesus.

-Jesus says on our own, our weariness is _____.

-Jesus says He will _____ the rest we need.

-Jesus gives rest that makes the hard way _____.

“Take my yoke upon you and learn from me!”
