A heartfelt thank you to all who prayed, showed love, concern and support in many ways during the many months of Jim’s illness and after his passing. We certainly felt God’s presence with us in every situation that arose over this time. As we feel the pain of losing him, it is softened by the assurance that he is in the presence of our Heavenly Father and for this we are thankful. Thank you to Pastor Kyu as he visited him at Albert House even though he had not met Jim. We are so appreciative of that. Thank you to Pastor Gary for officiating at the funeral. Jim thought of Gary as not only his Pastor, but also as a dear friend. May God bless each one of you for all the kindness shown to us!

-Love Joan, Stacy, & Karrie
